IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON AT SEATTLE

In re

Theodore Nicoloudakis,

Debtor.

Chapter 7

Case No. 23-12177

ORDER ON MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

This matter came before the Court on the Debtor's Motion for Reconsideration (the "Motion") [ECF No. 162]. The Motion requests reconsideration of the Court's Order on Motion to Convert Case from Chapter 7 to Chapter 11 and Make a Small Business Sub-Chapter V Election (the "Order") [ECF No. 156]. In the Order, the Court denied the Debtor's request to convert the case to chapter 11. The Debtor's Motion asserts the Court erred in its consideration of the deadline for filing a Subchapter V plan under 11 U.S.C. § 1189(b) because the Debtor's previous issues in this case are the result of his reliance on prior counsel.

Motions for reconsideration are disfavored and are usually to be denied without a showing of either manifest error or of new facts or law that could not have previously been

1 brought before the Court with reasonable diligence. Local Civil Rule 7(h), applicable through
2 Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-1(h).

3 The Motion raises no new facts or law that could not have previously been brought
4 before this Court nor any manifest error made by the Court. The Court is well aware of the issues
5 in this case and the conduct of the Debtor's prior counsel. These facts do not change the Court's
6 decision not to exercise its discretion to extend the deadline to file a Subchapter V plan under
7 section 1189(b). Now, therefore it is hereby

8 ORDERED that the Motion is DENIED.
